

Hi-Line Arts Trail Project

Preserving and Promoting Hi-Line Arts and Culture

Which areas are included in the Hi-Line Arts Trail Project?

- Counties: Blaine, Cascade, Chouteau, Glacier, Hill, Liberty, Phillips, Toole
- Reservations: Blackfeet, Fort Belknap, Rocky Boy

What will the Hi-Line Arts Trail Project do?

- Arts and culture identification in each community
- Increase awareness of arts and culture for residents and tourists
- Mobile application development
- Support of tourism and economic development
- Promote a network of artists, community leaders, and cultural representatives
- Allow each community to define what arts means in their communities

How will the Hi-Line Arts Trail benefit my community?

- Increase tourism in rural Montana communities
- Increase educational opportunities
- Create “artpreneurship” and other economic opportunities
- Encourage community discussion about arts and culture in the community
- Potential new art installations or arts and cultural events

How can you help?

- Provide your contact information to stay informed about the project
- Inform potential partners of the project and encourage participation
- Assist a community committee in mapping arts and culture assets
- Participate in the Regional Arts Advisory Council to increase arts and cultural opportunities in the region
- Identify existing art assets, either private or public

Sponsored by

For more information, contact Rosie Goldich (rgoldich@opportunitylinkmt.org) at 406-265-3699 or Kathy Bagley (artspoteducation@gmail.com) at 406-654-1523.

The Hi-Line Arts Trail is made possible through a National Endowment for the Arts Our Town Program and the Burlington Northern Santa Fe Railroad.