Core Civic

Reported by Brent Madrid:

Audits are taking place at the facility.

They got more staff, but only on a temporary basis. They will be losing them Sept 1.

CoreCivic has agreed to provide 150 lbs of burger & hotdogs for the NTC Appreciation Picnic.

Our guests from Sweetgrass Development: Sarah Converse & Michelle Turnbull spoke.

They are here to help with Business Training, marketing, and applying for funding through the Department of Tourism.

OLD BUSINESS: Kiwanis Ad for Kite Festival was approved in the May 8th Member Minutes. Check was delivered to Dwaine Iverson's office.

NEW BUSINESS: Kiddie & Fair Parades: are under control.

Street Fair: We still need several volunteers: 6 to oversee the kids' games & 2 to man the street closures. We are having trouble Getting food vendors. A couple suggestions were made and will be pursued.

NTC Appreciation Picnic: Butch Gillepsie has agreed to help with the grilling & also offered to donate 50 lbs of burger as long as it's ok for him to use his own beef. We approved that. CoreCivic has offered 150 lbs of burger & hotdogs. They will also bring The Kid's Bean Bag Toss games.

Kudos of the Week: To Audie & Britney Bancroft for sharing their vast knowledge of Chamber Events and for their willingness to help. They are much appreciated!!
