REPORTS:

Core Civic: Prison representatives reported on employment opportunities available at Core Civic including: Officers, Unit Manager, Education Instructor, Vo-tech Supervisor, and Librarian. They also bought lunch for all of us as part of their Community Outreach. We were so pleased to have them join us today and would like to thank them for buying lunch!

OLD BUSINESS:

Triangle Pitch Night: None of those present were able to attend, but they had 17 people show up – including Crissy Bauman. We will find out more at our next meeting.

CHS Christmas at the Carousel: None of those present were able to attend.

NEW BUSINESS:

Enrollment Update: The total enrolled as of this morning was 74. This includes 52 regular memberships, 13 extra listings, 5 free new members and 4 free trade outs.

Moonlight/March Madness Basketball: Doreen is waiting to hear from Peder Underdahl – he is out of town until after the 1st. It was suggested that Loralee Aikins might be able to help with running the tournament.

Chamber Banquet: Representatives from the Marias Valley Golf Course & Country Club will contact the Chamber after their meeting. May was suggested by Brice Kluth as the better month to hold the banquet. As May is such a busy month, we discussed having the banquet on a Wednesday instead of a Friday. This decision will be left to the Chamber Board of Directors.

Chamber After Hours: Our January event will be held at the Civic Center on Tuesday, January 14th from 5:30 – 7:00 pm. In February, Bowenwork will be our host at their office at 5:30 pm.

Kudos of the Week: to Core Civic for helping the Comfort Inn with snow removal during the Thanksgiving snowstorm. They were much appreciated!

Coupon of the Week: Shelby Promoter: Take $10 off a new or existing subscription.

Did you Know... Big Sky Creative Works is able to add photos & custom graphics to hundreds of items for gifts, home décor, and promotional items?
